Introduction

#1 New York Times bestseller and USA Today bestseller

The greater we recognize about the animals in our world and the higher we care for them, the higher our lives may be. Former veterinary technician and animal advocate Tracey Stewart is aware this better than maximum and she's on a challenge to exchange how we engage with animals. Through loads of captivating illustrations, a few selfmade tasks, and her humorous, knowledgeable voice, Stewart offers perception into the secret lives of animals and the kindest ways to live with and along them. At domestic, she suggests readers how to speak "dog-ese" and "cat-ese" and the way to "in reality adopt" an animal. In the outside, we learn about constructing bee houses, dealing nicely with pesky moles, and creative approaches to fowl-watch. And on the farm, Stewart teaches us what we are able to do to assist all cattle lead a better existence (and exhibits pigs' superpowers!). Part practical g
