RAPE NEW YORK JANA LEO

Introduction

?In the gripping first pages of this actual tale, Jana Leo relives the instant-through-second revel in of a domestic invasion and rape in her own rental in Harlem. After she reviews the crime, she waits. Between police disinterest and squabbles from the health insurance enterprise over who's going to pay for the rape kit, she realizes that the violence of such an revel in does not prevent with the crime. Increasingly involved that the rapist will go back, she seeks help from her landlord, who refuses to deal with safety issues at the assets. She involves remember the fact that it is exactly those situations of newly gentrified decrease-income regions which lead to prone residing spaces, high turnover fees, and in the long run better profits for slumlords. In this most singular memoir, Leo weaves a mental adventure into an analysis that turns into similarly personal: the fault traces of belongings mismanagement, magnificence vulnerabilities, and a deeply unsuitable criminal justice
